

Photography Course Track

Students must have completed either 1510 or 1520 in order to enroll in 2600 or 3100 courses. Both 1510 and 1520 must be completed before moving on to a second course in photography.

2600: PHOTOGRAPHY I: Color

- // Introduction to digital SLR cameras
- // Experience with Adobe editing software & lighting
- // Creation of fine art professionally printed portfolio.

3100: PHOTOGRAPHY II: Darkroom

- // Introduction to 35mm film cameras
- // Develop your own black & white film and craft your own black and white prints in our wet lab
- // Explore experimental options with film

3110: PHOTOGRAPHY III

prerequisite 2600

- // Introduction to studio lighting for industry and creative purposes
- // Intermediate use of Adobe Photoshop
- // Experience with large format printing and portfolio development courses rotate ever fall. A great way to enhance your degree/studies!

SPECIAL TOPICS

ADVANCED courses rotate every spring

3200: PHOTOGRAPHY IV: Alt. Process

prerequisites 2600, 3110

- // Introduction to alternative historical photographic processes
- // Experience with integrating digital & analog techniques

4000: ADVANCED: Large Format

prerequisite 2600, 3100, 3110

- // Introduction to large format analog photography
- // Experience with professional film scanning systems
- // BFA Thesis portfolio development and mentoring

3210: PHOTOGRAPHY IV: Video

prerequisites 2600, 3100, 3110

- // Introduction to moving image creation using DSLR cameras
- // Experience industry video & sound editing softwares.
- // Experiment with installation design

4010: ADVANCED: Risograph

prerequisite 2600, 3100, 3110

- // Experience with designing and printing publications using a Risograph printer
- // Working collaboratively on publications for community businesses
- // BFA Thesis portfolio development and mentoring

Required courses for BA and BFA tracks: 2600, 3100, 3110, and 4000 or 4110

Student are eligible for BFA clearance after completing PHTO2600, PHTO3100, and PHTO3110. Students may be currently enrolled in their second 3000 level course and still are eligible to go through clearance.