DEADLINES:
Feb. 22 - Degree Application (on MyUI) due for students graduating May 2019.
Mar. 4 - Beginning of summer registration
April 1 - Last day to drop semester long classes.
April 8 - First day of fall registration
April 19 - Last day of fall registration - registration for minors opens

ADVISING:
Remember that second year and third year students must meet with Lynne or Megan with their fall schedule, in order to be authorized to register. Summer registration dates and times are now up, as are courses for the fall.

Megan and Lynne each work part time and are available at different and overlapping times. You can make appointments with either one, if your primary advisor is not available.

BFA:
May graduating seniors earning a BFA, need to have their galleries scheduled. If you don’t, please see Sara Pettit in ABW 150, immediately.

BFA CLEARANCE - If you have completed Basic Drawing, Design Fundamentals, the intro level of the discipline in which you are seeking a BFA and have completed, or are currently in two upper levels in that discipline, you may be eligible for clearance. Please see Lynne or Megan for eligibility, paperwork and sign up times. Note that some disciplines like, GRAPHIC DESIGN, may require additional upper level coursework. Please check with faculty in the discipline for readiness.

HONORS IN THE MAJOR:
Students graduating with Honors in the Art or Art History majors, should have signed up for ARTS: 4190 or ARTH:3985, have submitted your Honors in the Major Application, reviewed the requirements of the research project with Lynne, Megan or Professor Bork, submitted your degree application and sent in the thesis submission agreement. If you have not done that, please make an appointment with Lynne or Megan as soon as possible to review the requirements.

INFOSESSIONS:
Job and Internship Search Strategies - taught by our Career counselors.
Thurs. Feb. 21, 12:45-1:45, ABW Library, Decaso Room

STUDENT ORGS:
UAHS - The Undergraduate Art History Society (UAHS) will be hosting an undergraduate art history symposium that is currently scheduled for April. The symposium will be an excellent way to strengthen public speaking skills and is a rare opportunity for undergraduates to share their research with the entire art history department. UAHS strongly encourages any year of art history major to apply to present. If you are interested in participating in the symposium, please submit a 100-200 word abstract of your art history research paper and the name of a graduate student that you wish to assist you (if known) to olivia-vongries@uiowa.edu by February 28, 2019.

Photography- Watch for information about the new Photo club, coming up in the next 1-2 weeks. They have finalized their org status and are ready with projects including a photo book. Please contact mark-lanning@uiowa.edu if you have questions about meetings.

Drawing and Painting- Drawing and painting will continue to offer live model drawing opportunities 11am-1pm Friday, 5th floor drawing room VAB. Alexis Beucler is the contact person for this opportunity.

UI Students in Design- Meet Wed. 5-6pm, 130 VAB, Katherine-gylten@uiowa.edu is the contact for information about this org. Portfolio reviews, trips, design workshops and more.

Ceramics- Children of the clay meet at 12:30 every other Friday in VAB. Contact natalie-nicholson@uiowa.edu for more information.

EPX STUDIOS- students interested in animation for movies or video games meets on Fridays at 5pm in VAB 240. SAVE THE DATE: April 13, ABW is the next EPX CON. This is an unparalleled opportunity to meet people from Pixar, Microsoft, Bioware and more. Also presentations by animators, voice actors, narrative directors, producers and more. They will be giving bio information about their careers and projects. There will also be a joint career panel. Free.

RESEARCH INFO:

"We know you’re proud of the research you do, and we’d like to offer you the opportunity to share it with your community! We are passionate about highlighting the importance of undergraduate research -- so with your help, we aim to compile a short film of interviews with you, our researchers. Interviews will take about 30 minutes. All flavors of research, whether you’ve been involved for a few years or are just now starting, are encouraged to participate! To thank you for your time, we are also holding a raffle for three ten-dollar Amazon gift cards.

If interested, please email ioana-cherascu@uiowa.edu with your name and the type of research you do, and we'll arrange an interview."  Note that research can be honors research and art history research for the symposium. Please contact your faculty research mentor or Lynne for more information, if you are willing to participate in the video and have questions.

ICRU (Iowa Center for Research for Undergraduates) provides an opportunity to help a faculty member with their research and be paid for getting that experience. Here is a link to information about ICRU. The deadlines for applications are coming up March 1 and March 22.

Spinning Yarns:

Are you interested in getting together to discuss topics in art and/or art history or social interest, while working on your knitting, crochet, embroidery, sketching or other hand crafts? A faculty member, grad student, advisor and some undergrads are getting together to work on projects while discussing an art or art history related topic. An art student ambassador will select the topic and help guide our first discussion. Please contact lynne-lanning@uiowa.edu, if you are interested. First group planned for Feb. 27, 5-6pm, in the ABW Library, Decaso room.

JOB AND INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES:

Please check the bulletin boards outside of ABW 122 and 120 for more information about jobs and internships. Also, you can check on the SAAH webpage: https://art.uiowa.edu/resources/students/student-opportunities

PROBATION: If you are on probation this semester, please make sure you have made an appointment to meet with the advisor in 120 Shaeffer, as noted in your probation instructions.

TRANSFER STUDENTS: You will be receiving the note from Diane Hauser, below. Please consider participating:

The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences is interested in hearing about your departmental advising experience since transferring to the University of Iowa. It’s important to us that you receive excellent advising, so we invite you to answer some questions and share your experiences with us on Friday, March 1st, from 2-3 p.m. in 120 Schaeffer Hall.

If you have met with a CLAS faculty advisor or departmental advisor for your major, please join us at this one-hour session. There is no need to sign up or confirm your participation. Your time and effort will be greatly appreciated, though we are not able to provide monetary compensation. Please contact me if you have questions. Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa-sponsored events. If you are a person with a disability who requires a reasonable accommodation in order to participate in this program, please contact diane-hauser@uiowa.edu in advance at 319.335.2633.

We hope your semester is off to a good start. Please let us know if we can be of help.

Your academic advisors,

Lynne and Megan
