Hard timelines you will need to follow:

Feb. 3:
ARTS: 4190 add forms need to be completed and filed with the Service Center by Monday Feb. 3 or you may need to get Dean's permission to add.

Feb. 10:
You must have met with Lynne or Megan to get the information and the application. The ARTS: 4190 course and the Honors in the Major application must be turned in by today. Late applications will not be accepted and you will not be able to do the Honors in the Major.

Feb. 10:
You must file for graduation on your MyUI and include that you will be receiving Honors in the Major.

April 1-10:
Set up an appointment with Lynne or Megan to go over your abstract, even if it is in the first draft. You should plan on making revisions at least 2 or 3 times.

April 24:
Final draft of abstract is due with signatures of your faculty advisor, Anita Jung and advisor. Hard copy should be submitted to Lynne and Megan.

April 27:
Upload image of your project and signed abstract to the qualtrix link provided. Submit number of Honors projects and sizes to Lynne for the Honors show. Complete the gallery agreement on the SAAH resource page and turn into Lynne or Megan. If you need pedestals or a computer, please make sure you have contacted the appropriate people listed on the HiM and Gallery information webpages. You are responsible for set up and take down of your show in a timely manner.

April 30:
Last day to submit information about your honors project for the show. You will need a copy of your abstract to post with your Honors piece.

May 1:
Lynne will email you a layout of the Honors Galleries so that you can set up on Monday May 4.

May 4:
Set up your pieces in the group Honors show.

May 8:
Take down your show, unless you have indicated to Lynne or Megan, by April 30, that you wished to leave it up for the Graduating Senior Show.

Anita Jung, anita-jung@uiowa.edu, is the SAAH Studio Art Honors in the Major advisor and will need to sign off on your HiM application and your final abstract approval, along with your faculty advisor.
