Spring 2023 Honors in the Major (HiM) Deadlines

Honors in the Major (HiM) Hard time lines you will need to follow to pass.

1. Secure a faculty HiM advisor. They are not obligated to be an advisor, so please have a well thought out research proposal prior to approaching them. Align your research proposal with a faculty member who has expertise in that area. You will need special permission from the Faculty member to add the Honors in the Major.

Jan. 31: ARTS: 4190 must be added.
Jan. 31: Last day to submit HiM application
Jan. 31: Your Spring 2023 schedule is finalized and you have to file your Degree Application on your MyUI. We cannot process your HiM until this is complete.

Feb. 7: You will have reviewed the HiM requirements with Lynne or Thalassa to refine the first paragraph of your abstract, stating your specific research objective.

Jan.-March: Meet with your Faculty advisor as set up in your initial discussion, work on your project and keep Notes of your process in a notebook.

March 27-31: Set up meeting with Lynne or Thalassa to review your HiM abstract, first draft. Refer to the Example on the SAAH webpage to format it correctly with the title block and three paragraphs one Page. This CLAS format is not negotiable.

April 14: Review your improved abstract with Lynne and Thalassa. Make any suggested changes and resubmit So that you are ready to submit to your faculty member for approval by April 20.

April 25: Final approved form of your abstract, approved by your faculty member after approval by Thalassa And Lynne has to be submitted to Lynne and filed for CLAS to approve the HiM.

April 24-28: You need to have finalized your preparation for the show. This includes:
   a. signed the gallery agreement and return it to Holly in 150 ABW;
   b. contact gallery specialists about pedestals or computers and set up
   c. submit final abstract which must be posted with your research project
   d. Send Lynne you’re the number and size of your research pieces for the show.

April 29: Everything must be submitted and complete prior to the Gallery show, which is required for completion of the HiM.

May 1-5: HiM gallery show. Set up on May 1.
May 5:    Zoom reception with faculty.

Significant requirements:
1. Meet with your faculty advisor throughout the semester. This is required and you may not be cleared to graduate with HiM, if you do not.
2. Meet all deadlines, particularly for the abstract completion. Anticipate at least 3 editions.
3. Participate in the gallery and zoom show.
4. Complete your project on time. We know some of you will have a BFA show too. Please factor this into your time.
5. Pass the ARTS: 4190 course.
6. Complete with UI and major GPAS of at least 3.33 and 3.5, respectively.
