DEADLINES:
Oct. 4- last day to file graduation application without late fees, for students intending to graduate December 2019.
Oct. 7- MyUI course offerings available to begin spring/summer 2020 planning.
Nov. 4- Last day for undergrads to drop a semester long course.

ADVISING:
Mandatory advising for second and third year students.
You are considered a second year student, if you have earned 30-59 semester hours(sh) or a third year student, if you have earned 60-89 sh. Your MyUI also indicates whether you are a second or third year student. If you are either, you have a mandatory advising requirement. This means that you must meet with Lynne or Megan in order to be authorized to register for Spring 2020 classes. Please do not wait to make an advising appointment as spots fill quickly and we will not be able to authorize you without an appointment. Early registration begins Nov.11.

CAREERS IN ART:
Wondering about how to make a career in art? Please attend these important informational sessions.
Oct. 8- Drawing and Painting faculty from 12:15-1:30 in E125 VAB, will present on making a living in Drawing and Painting and information about graduate school. Everyone welcome! Please come and go, if you cannot stay the whole time.
Oct. 9- BECOMING A SUCCESSFUL ENTREPRENEUR in the creative fields- 6-7pm 130 ABW. Please come hear how to make a successful career in Graphic Design and the fine arts. Information applicable to all Studio Art programs. Everyone welcome!

PIZZA WITH PROFESSORS:
Oct. 17: Undergraduate and graduate students are invited for Pizza with Prof. Anderson. 6:30pm, ABW 110. Don't pass up a chance to learn more about your professors and enjoy some free pizza!

PROPOSED CHANGES TO THE ART HISTORY DEGREE:
Oct. 10- Changes are being considered to decrease hours and requirements for the Art History major. Prof. Bork will discuss these, 6:30pm in ABW 116. Please come and share your thoughts with him about the proposed changes.

STUDENT OPPORTUNITIES:
Oct. 18: is the deadline for submission of your artwork for the student art exhibit. It will be Nov. 3-9th in VAB W540. Theme is "The smell of Nature" and it is open to all students. Please contact Roxanne Cen for more information: roxannecen123@gmail.com
BFA CLEARANCE:
BFA clearances will be held the week of Nov. 4-8. If you are considering going through a BFA clearance, please contact Lynne or Megan to set up an appointment to see if you have the coursework requirements; to begin the paperwork and to get signed up for a date and time.

Printmaking Clearance will be Nov. 8.
3D Design Clearance will be Nov. 8. Info group session will be Oct. 18, 1-2pm E236 VAB.
Photography Clearance will be Nov. 5.
Drawing and Painting Clearance will be Nov. 7
Sculpture Clearance will be Nov. 7
Metals Clearance will be Nov. 8
Please watch for information on Ceramics, Intermedia and Graphic Design

STUDENT ORGS:
Printmaking has a student org called Iowa Print Group. Contact: Heather Parrish or Jackson Taylor for more information on when and where it meets.
Metals has a new student org. Iowa Smith Guild, which is a new organization under the Jewelry and Metals department, will be having its first meeting on October 11th 2019, 5.30 pm in room Room W355 VAB. For more information you can contact us through either of these two emails hannah-sakyiama@uiowa.edu or ingrida-galejs@uiowa.edu.

CAREER ADVISOR:
garry-klein@uiowa.edu is the career advisor for the art and art history students. You can book an appointment with him through your MyUI to learn more about jobs/internships and career development resources at the Pomerantz Career Center.

PROBATION:
If you are on probation, you have received a note from the Dean's office about scheduling an appointment with an advisor, before Nov. 5. Please make sure to do that.

We hope your semester is off to a good start. If you have any questions or concerns, please let us know what we can do to help.

Your academic advisors,
Lynne and Megan
lynne-lanning@uiowa.edu and megan-k-lyons@uiowa.edu