DEADLINES:
Oct. 4 - last day to apply for December graduation without a late fee. You can apply through your MyUI, if you have not already.
Oct. 7 - Spring course offerings available for viewing on MyUI.

DROP/ADD: The add period is over, except for off cycle courses that have not started yet.
If you are dropping a semester long course, you must have completed the drop by Nov. 4 at 4pm. If you submit an online drop, please send Lynne or Megan an email letting them know, as we do not receive automatic notification when a drop authorization is requested. Remember that dropping below 12 semester hours may impact some financial aid and scholarships, as well as international student standing.

GRADUATION: For students planning on graduating in December there is a check list available for SAAH majors here: https://art.uiowa.edu/sites/art.uiowa.edu/files/gradSen%20Fall19Checklist%5B1%5D.pdf

ADVISING APPOINTMENTS: You can book planning appointments with your advisors, Lynne and Megan through your MyUI. Don’t know how? Here’s a tutorial: https://vimeo.com/360662653

HONORS IN THE MAJOR: Students graduating in Dec. 2019, who have signed up for Honors in the Major (HiM), your HiM application was due Sept. 16. You need to have applied for graduation before we can begin to process your HiM status on MAUI. If you have not done that, please do. If you have questions about the research, the abstract, show or anything related to the HiM, please let us know.

BFA CLEARANCES: Will be held the week of Nov. 4. We are not ready for individual sign ups yet. Please contact your program faculty about your preparation for the clearance. You will need to have completed at a minimum, Basic Drawing, Design Fundamentals, Intro level course for BFA program and be in, or have completed, 2 upper levels beyond the intro level. Some program requirements vary. Graphic Design requires through GD4; 3D Design- you should consult with faculty for more information.

PROBATION:
The associate directors in CLAS Academic Programs and Student Development want to meet with you to discuss your academic standing.
